DETAILED ACTION

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Keller (U.S. Patent No. 4,869,911). Keller shows the product set forth in claim 13. Alternatively, it is not seen that the claim defines an unobvious new product over the product of Keller. The Examiner's position is that irrespective of the process by which the product is made, the claimed product is still a crisp, expanded, farinaceous food product having a moisture content from about 4 weight percent to about 8 weight percent and a water activity of from about 0.30 to about 0.45; and such a product is shown by Keller. It is well settled that the recitation that the product is made by a new process, if the process was indeed new and patentable, does not impart patentability to an otherwise unpatentable product. The burden is upon the applicants to come forward with evidence to prove that the prior art product does not necessarily or inherently possess the characteristics of the claimed product. See In re Brown, 173 USPQ 685; In re Pilkington, 162 USPQ 145; In re Fessman, 180 USPQ 324 (especially 325, last para.); In re Marosi 710 F.2d 799, 218 USPQ 195 (Fed. Cir. 1983); and In re Thorpe, 227 USPQ 964 (Fed. Cir. 1985).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-12 are allowed.

Prior Art Citation

The Kazemzadeh patent is cited to show a process for producing a syrup-infused farinaceous food product.
